

Securities Law Writing Competition

Association of Securities and Exchange Commission Alumni

1st Place $5,000

2nd Place $3,000

3rd Place $2,000

TOPIC: Any subject in the field of securities law

ELIGIBILITY: Students must be enrolled at any accredited law school in the United States for the 2016 fall semester. Unpublished papers, papers published in any law journal or other publication during calendar year 2016, and papers scheduled for publication in 2016 or 2017 are eligible for submission. Co-authored papers are not eligible.

DEADLINE: Thursday, November 10, 2016

MAIL TWO COPIES OF SUBMISSIONS TO:

ASECA
P. O. Box 5767
Washington, DC 20016

All submissions must include author's name, e-mail address, postal address, telephone number, law school, and year of anticipated graduation. For published submissions and submissions scheduled to be published, the name and date of publication or anticipated publication should be included. Should your article be selected, permission from your publisher to post a link to the article on the ASECA website at www.secalumni.org will be needed.

Two copies of each submission must be received by Thursday, November 10, 2016. E-mailed submissions will NOT be accepted. Receipt of submissions will be acknowledged by e-mail after all submissions have been received.

Questions may be directed to Mitzi Moore, ASECA Executive Director at info@secalumni.org.

Award winners will be invited to attend ASECA's Annual Dinner in Washington, DC on February 20, 2015. Travel and lodging expenses for the first place award winner will be reimbursed by ASECA up to $1,000.